TID BITS

Chadwick Clean Up Day – 1/1/03. The following 15 hardy folks showed up bright and early New Year’s morning at the Pavilion:

- Jon Simons
- Aaron Roberts
- Phillip Gilliard
- Steve Underwood
- Nick Stine
- David Berry
- Wayne Beindorf
- Allen Haynes
- Shawn and Kim Hall
- Kreg and Cindy Simons
- Bob and Linda Fuerst
- Plus the unknown kid in the red pants

OK, not all of us showed up so bright and early. Right, Spud. Spud showed up bright and early, I didn't. We picked up lots of trash along the road. Then we burned some burgers and hot dogs, did some prime bench racing and Cindy and Linda hogged the propane heater. A few folks loaded up and went for a ride. Linda and I hopped in the truck and headed home.

ble is scheduled for January 26, 2003 at Hillbilly Highways south of Highlandville on Hwy 160 to Highway V and follow the arrows. The Hillbilly Grand Prix classes will be run for Bikes, ATVs and Pee Wees. The gate opens at 8am. Pee Wees will run one 30 minute moto at 9 am. Practice will be from 9:45 to 10:15. The first bike moto starts at 11:00 for one hour. The ATVs will run a single 1½ hour moto. Then the bikes will run a second one hour moto. The course will be run backwards the second time. For more info call: (417) 833-6672.

Past Chadwick winners

We’ve made a little progress in finding the winners of the past Chadwick enduros. David Berry’s mom found a flyer from the 17th annual Chadwick Enduro in 1984 when Jim Stanfield won the event. Keep looking in those attics and basements. It would sure be nice to have a record of the past winners.

HBGP Overall Standings

Starting on page 5, you’ll find the overall standing of the Hillbilly Grand Prix series. Not only does it give this information to the folks that don’t have access to a computer. It filled up this issue very quickly, getting me back on schedule.

Toys for Tots

Steve Underwood of Surdyke Motorsports again promoted the annual Toys for Tots race. Unfortunately, we were disappointed by the low turnout. If you weren't there and didn't get your toy to Steve, shame on you, but the following folks did show up with a $15.00 toy for charity:

Three bikes go for a splash fest at Toys for Tots

Caleb Wohletz, Steve Leivan, Rusty Reynaud, Casey Haynes, Allen Haynes, Jon Simons, Karl Harris, Elston

The second moto was more interesting for me. Steve and Wayne Beindorf turn the arrows around for the second moto. I decided to take pictures at the beginning of the moto and got to watch my good buddy Dale Willis miss a turn and take half the field around the motocross track a couple of times before they found the course. After I took a roll of film, I jumped on the bike and played.

Of course the real winners are the kids.

The race was held at the Possom Hollow Motocross track. The rain and snow before the event made the motocross track real muddy. Jon Simons brought the Hillbilly Grand Prix computers for scoring. I was helping with the computers at the start of the first moto, so after I got the computer going, I got on my bike and thought I jumped into the race at the back of the over 40 class. Actually, I jumped in the front of the class. So I rode a couple of laps

It wouldn't be Toys for Tots if John Gott didn't show up with his Santa hat

The start of the 250-Open class

I get this call on my answering machine Saturday night before the race from Spud, he said something like, "Bob, are you coming to the race with the computers?" I think Spud got a little concerned since he hadn't talked to me all week.

I did show up Sunday morning with the computers. It was cold, but the sun warmed things up quickly and it turned out to be a beautiful day. I was surprised at the number of people camping out. Chile was sleeping in the back of his Astro van. He has this sleeping bag that's good to below zero, but you have to get up sometime. So he made Shane get up and start the motor and heater. A short time later, it started raining in the van. It seems the heater started melting the condensation on the ceiling of the van. Chile wasn't the only one with an experience worthy of mention in Notes on Spokes, his fiancée Kerri tried to set herself on fire by standing too close to the propane heater at sign up.

Approximately 90 bikes showed up and 50 ATVs. If you rode the race last year, this year the course was run the other way. It's a typical Ozarks course. That would be rocky and hilly. There were also a few grass track sections thrown in for good measure. I think the course was about 4 miles in length.

Doug Stone on his way to winning the overall.

Notes on Spokes

Subscribe to Notes on Spokes for your own protection. Why read your own antics in your buddy's letter. Be prepared; don't let one blindsides you. Have your own  about news-some-witty come back ready, like "duh." On the serious side, we cover the Black Jack Enduro circuit and the Missouri State Hare Scramble Championship. Hey, it's pretty cheap, only 9 bucks per year. That's about the price of two value meals at Mickey D's. And it keeps coming month after month.
