

"The Infinite STIMULUS"

A Measure of Truth

"The Unmistakable
ABSTRACT"

No doubt. Man's sense of self is relentless. From his immediate needs to his philosophical prompts, man follows a path well worn. Sought with hopeful anticipation, yet wrought with sorrow and regret. Why.. the constant struggle??

LIFE ENCOUNTERS LOSS!! ..so much as to drive us to a defensive posture..
-PRESERVING SELF-

Bound to this environment is an element of riveting purpose...

CONSUMMATE TRUTH: "THE COALESCENCE OF LIFE & MEANING"

This contender of time ordains life through trial & recognition; reason & revelation; ..and finally.. validation --spanning a TEST of time & energy.

Of course, determination presents the overall incentive: Life's bid for growth and understanding, built on established values, ..fueling a fundamental belief.

As with TIME . . this living reality proves that things can make sense on a broader more redemptive scale, through faith and trust, granting an array of expectations and soulful experience. ..Such is Consummate Truth.

Yet, something is curiously absent... What is it???

The Revered Source of Truth's SUBSTANTIVE WILL is rarely considered!

It's a common mis-perception, that there is no plausible means of access into a reality of grander purpose than what's at play. And, secondly.. that the mere notion of some trusted salient deity robs man of his aspiring subjective Self.

--It's simply not true!

The choice is this : Do we incorporate TRUTH -mindfully- through selective reasoning??
-or- augment ourselves first with probing introspection and tempered moral clarity..
..by an Imbued Causal Connection?

Holistically.. the best approach to self-awareness is --reconciliation-- to the ominous fact ..that WE ARE not.. ..and HOLD not.. the answer for and within ourselves, independent of an imperial point of reference ..or.. apart from TRUTH's external ingredient.

Unlike the mystical mantra of the modern age, man's eternal guiding light is truly NOT found within, but without. --without a doubt! ..and without our doing!!
..except for the soul's subtle plea.. ..to pursue its 'LIVING' derivative!!

Only by renouncing our nefarious no-fault SELF, will a transcendent voice awaken us from our enamored state, then introduce us to a more pensive state of.. PRIORITY.

Ultimately, we find that the best answers to life are not found for self, (by self), but rather, in weighing the predicament that 'self' faces: via one's own confounded will & determination -or- by Truth's profound intervention -- REVAMPING THE DAILY ORDEAL!

How rarely is this supernal signal registered as a Timeless Moral Construct!!

..or, i.e. :

--LIFE'S #1 PRIORITY--

Could there really be a GREATER MIND at large?

..A Resource of infinite knowledge and wisdom?

..A choreographed message...waiting in the wings??

..A protocol that "fits the bill"?

I say yes, unequivocally !!

One can see how the ills of attrition are unstoppable ..almost like wind blowing against one's face from every conceivable direction --without cause !!
..as a blatant confrontation demanding a defensive stance: to turn away from it, --or face the chafing.. "Damned if you do! . . . Damned if you don't!!"

Again.. It's not a question of -self- surviving, but of a stricter sense of urgency..
..making the most of MEANING amid the assault !!

This is CONSCIENCE forsaking ill will, for a more determined approach ..

TO SEEK & FIND AN AUTHENTIC STRAIGHT-FORWARD ANSWER:

"One's (afflicted) life; One's (appointed) death ..countered by one FAR GREATER!"

All things considered.. it's evident we must enlist a personal arbiter!

NOT to negotiate "heaven-or-hell", nor to sanctify ..RELIGIOSITY.. but rather.. As one who promotes a just & nobler cause!

--a Cause beyond the scope of the human heart and its crafted pretense!!

This modal Life-Line is dedicated to us (singularly) in every conceivable way!

YES, His steady personal devotion may be hard to figure out, but oh so easy to figure into a more dutiful, genuine, --reconstructed CONTINUUM.

My living Companion has been brought to life, in my own life, via contention with sacred history; with human nature, including & defining every traumatic moment!
NOW.. He is trusted and ear to my needs! HE EXISTS. HE IS REAL. (not by my word alone)

HE was.. long before 'I am'. ..And will be my voice, long after 'I am' is dead & gone!

Summarily.. One is not governed by attrition, but enabled by free volition to choose the GREATER SUPERNAL CONSTANT.

--the ONE who stands in TIME's domain as a proven RESOURCE..willing to intervene.

I challenge you to consider The PREMIER AUTHOR of an ASSURED JUSTIFIED LIFE.

ONE who esteems PURE TRUTH --NOT SELF-- as man's ultimate prized possession!

..A Living ROCK.. impervious to the winds of oblivion; ..A HERO for all Seasons;

..A FRIEND.. acquainted with grief and suffering, -and-

--the PROVIDER of a lasting reality beyond the worn & dreaded path of circumstance!

i.e.: an "infinite stimulus"/ unmistakable abstract

Authentic Faith is SOURCE derived --not "SELF-CONSIGNED".
