

KIMBERLY SUE KEIPINGER CAROL LEE JEAN KEIPINGER 1973 AND 1977 - 1997

Kimberly Sue Keipinger, 23, and Carol Lee Jean Keipinger, 19, both of Reese, died of injuries sustained in an automobile accident Saturday evening, Jan. 25 in Saginaw County.

Kimberly was born Oct. 29, 1973 in Saginaw, graduated from Reese High School in 1991 and was currently attending her senior year at SVSU majoring in accounting. While in high school she played the trumpet in the marching band and was employed by Data Graphics at Delphi Steering Systems Plant #6 in Saginaw. She was an accomplished cross stitching artist.

Carrie was born Aug. 7, 1977 in Saginaw, graduated seventh in her class at Reese High School in 1996, and was currently attending her freshman year at SVSU, also majoring in accounting. She played the flute in both the Reese High School Marching Band and SVSU Marching Band, and was employed by Pinocchio's Miniatures in Frankenmuth. Both sisters were members of St. John's Lutheran Church in Frankenmuth, both enjoyed horseback riding and ice skating.

Surviving are their parents, Michael Keipinger of Montrose and Carolyn Keipinger of Reese; their grandparents, Lillian Keipinger of Montrose; and Arnold and Doris Kunding of Sebawaing. Also surviving are many aunts, uncles, cousins and special friends.

They were preceded in death by their grandfather, John Keipinger in 1968 and their only sister, Tracy Lynn Keipinger in 1976.

Joint funeral services took place 11 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 30 from St. John's Lutheran Church in Frankenmuth. Rev. Joel Ehler officiated with burial in St. John's Cemetery, Frankenmuth.

Ware-Smith-Woollever Funeral Home, Reese, was in charge of arrangements.

Those wishing an expression of sympathy are asked to consider St. John's Lutheran Church Building Fund or the Frankenmuth Lutheran Hour.
