

KATHERINE FOLLMAN

1911 - 1996

Katherine Follman, 85 of Gagatown, passed away Monday afternoon, March 4 at William Beaumont Hospital in Royal Oak following a brief illness.

Mrs. Follman was born March 2, 1911 in New York City the daughter of the late Jacob and Susanna (Wagner) Tullius. She was united in marriage to Michael Follman on May 18, 1935 in Caro. He preceded her in death on Jan. 15, 1987. Mrs. Follman was a member of Holy Family Catholic Church in Sebawaing.

Surviving are two daughters, two sons and their spouses, Margaret Katherine and Leo Feebish, Cass City; June Marie Follman, Gagatown; Michael and Marcia Follman Jr., Valparaiso, IN; Harold D. and Jeanne Follman, Unionville; eight grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, also two sisters, Eva and Roger Wilcox, Grand Blanc; Helen Ash, Riverside, CA, three brothers, Carl Tullius, Westland; Jacob Tullius, Killeen, TX; Peter Tullius, Taylor, and several nieces and nephews.

Two sisters, Susan Margaret Gayk and Susan Tullius; five brothers, infants Henry, Adam and Joseph Tullius and Peter and Alfred Tullius, preceded her in death.

Mass for Christian Burial took place Thursday, March 7 at Holy Family Catholic Church, Sebawaing, with Fr. George Serour officiating and burial in Grant Twp. Cemetery, Gagatown.

Dinkel - Juengel Funeral Home of Sebawaing handled arrangements.

Those planning an expression of sympathy are asked to consider Holy Family Church, Rawson Library Memorial Fund or American Cancer Society.