

African Liberation Day

Our annual African Liberation Day event commemorates the foundation of the Organization of African Unity (OAU), now the African Union (AU) on May 25, 1963. PACCNY celebrates the success of the Global Pan African movement and acknowledges the continued fight against neocolonialism, racism and other socio-economic/socio-political ills faced by people of African origin around the world.

Black History Month

PACCNY celebrates Black History Month annually, celebrating the his/her historical achievements of people of African origin and recognizing the central role that Blacks have played in the history of the United States.

Unity Day

Unity day is a celebrative event featuring cultural and artistic talents among members of the Syracuse Africana community, treating the audience to: poetry, spoken word, music, song; colorful fashion shows and an irresistible Pan-African cuisine. The event fosters an afternoon of reconnecting, having fun and holding communion with each other.
