42. Further Description of Important Features (Continue on reverse if necessary) This gable-front house has a side hall and central brick chimney (it is identical to ERI-1590). The plain facades are illuminated by 2/2 windows set in undecorated frames. Trim elements are limited to narrow frieze, end and water table boards. A rear, one-story wing (a common island configuration) has a recessed screen porch on the south side. A hipped, ship-lap addition is attached to the rear gable of the wing.		43. History and Significance This is another house that was built just before 1895 on land purchased from Ann Twidney (ERI-1595). Henry Jordan, owner of record at that time probably was also the builder. Born in Bairne, Germany, in 1845 he emigrated to the United States in 1869, arriving on the island with his family sometime before 1880. They lived first in the Bookerman Rd/ Hunt-		8. ington Ln. area when working in one of the island wine cellars, and later as a carpenter repairman for the Kelley Island Lime and Transport Co. After moving into this house, the 1910 Census Records shows him as a farm laborer. William F. Becker, Partner in the Becker Winery (ERI-1678), was a boarder. Since Henry was then 65, it would not be unreasonable to suppose that he had retired from quarry work, and was helping Mr. Becker in his vineyards. Some references indicate that Henry's daughter, Emma, married * William Becker's son, George. It is also known that Jordan served as the janitor of the Town Hall c1885, and for Estes School for many years.
