

Watson, Margaret

Margaret A. Watson, 87, co-owner of Evenheat Kiln, Inc., in Caseville, died Sunday morning, Feb. 13, 2000, at Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon. Margaret Kimball was born Dec. 18, 1912, in Jackson and on Aug. 6, 1938, was united in marriage to John C. Watson in Jackson. They moved to the Dearborn area where they started the Evenheat Kiln Co. in 1948. In 1956, they moved their operation to Caseville where they continued together until her husband's death on Sept. 27, 1980. She remained with the business along with their two sons until retiring in 1998. Mrs. Watson was a member of the Audubon Society, enjoyed bird watching and loved to paint. Surviving are her two sons, John Watson and his wife, Diane, of Sand Point and Jerry Watson of Pigeon. Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 16, 2000, at the Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville. The Rev. Michael Quayle, pastor of the Caseville United Methodist Church, will officiate with burial in the Caseville Township Cemetery. Visitation is 2 to 9 p.m. today and after 10 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home.
