Together We Are The Church

Christ Lutheran Church Newsletter

Aloha Kakou,

By the time you receive this, Palm Sunday, Holy Week and Easter Sunday will have come and gone. A busy time not only for me, but for so many of us.

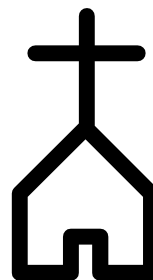

Mahalo nui loa for everyone who pitched in and did “liturgy” – literally, the “work of the people.” If you have thoughts for next year’s Lenten and Easter seasons, please do not hesitate to let me know.

As momentarily we catch our breath – or rather, let the breath of God’s Holy Spirit re-inspire us – before Ascension and Pentecost come upon us, I want to invite you to continue to listen for God’s wisdom blowing quietly among us. Let us pray for and seek God’s will in our new partnership with Joy of Christ Lutheran Church, how we can be unique witnesses to the Crucified One’s undying and unconditional love for all of us, for everyone in Central O’ahu, and how we might pray, listen and work together.

What next steps might we consider? Including talking story amongst ourselves. Including inviting and welcoming others to become a part of what we are about, what we might become, and who we might be as the baptized People of God.

Blessings,

Pastor Keith

It's another busy time of year. Are we any less busy with one service? Let us know how you're finding our new schedule.

YARN LEIS STILL NEEDED

We are still making yarn leis for next December's Mililani Christmas parade. Check "the table" for red, green, and white yarn that you make take for free to make these finger-made leis. (Making red and white and green and white leis stretches out the skeins of red and green that we have.) The leis are such a hit and have become such a tradition that we can hand out many, many of them. Attached to each lei is a business card extending an invitation to CLC's Christmas services. Help is needed. How many can we make?
