

FRANKFURT PLEIADES STAR MAP I

The purpose of this illustration is to suggest that the core area of the German city of Frankfurt is configured to mirror the Martian motif of the Cydonia, Mars pyramid complex. The Face of Mars corresponds to the Commerzbank Stadium and the Pentagon Fortress corresponds to a man-made built-up earthen mount. The Pleiadian Pyramid complex corresponds to the financial core of the old town upon the river called Main. This river also depicts the 'Serpent' that traverses through the hexagram that is constructed with the triangulation of the 3 motifs. This 'Serpent' is suggestive of the secret order called the Brotherhood of the Snake that is often associated with such a motif. This study suggests that the builders and designers of such a Maritain pattern incorporate it as a signature of the origins and allegiance of whom they are with, Lucifer. According to esoteric references, it is Lucifer that gives such places and people a financial stronghold foremost. It is the power behind the family dynasties that controls the world primarily through finances. In fact it was in this city, Frankfurt am Main that the Rothschilds started the financial powerhouse of not only in Europe but that of the world. This Martian template superimposed upon Frankfurt from a top view thus has some approximate measurements. What is peculiar about this rendition at Frankfurt is that the hexagram approximates an equilateral triangle facing north.

The other cities corresponding to the sons also have this same Martian motif layout. The other cities are London, Paris, and Naples aside from Frankfurt in Europe. The Martian motif appears to be their 'signature' for all the modern world capitals have this same Pleiadian pattern encrypted into the topography and dimensions of the city layout in some form or fashion. Wherever this Martian motif is construed, the same powers behind its financial, government and societal institutions are controlled by the same cadre of Luciferians at the very top.

THE PLEIADES

The core of the Pleiades star cluster pattern is usually associated with the financial hubs of the various Luciferian world capitals. In the case of Frankfurt, they even have the same design of placing their pyramids atop their financial towers of Babel or skyscrapers.

The following are a suggestive association of the various building and towers that comprise the 7 star Pleiadian pyramid city, as it is on Mars. The following are an approximation of what is corresponding to the Frankfurt landmarks.

Another very peculiar measurement association is that from the core of the Pleiades rendition of the star cluster in Frankfurt to the birthplace of Jesus Christ in Bethlehem is exactly 3000 km and 322 km to Vienna. It was in Vienna that 1 of the 5 sons of Meyer Bauer Rothschild sought to establish the domination of the world financial monopolies.
