Attention, calling all potential children's Sunday school teachers.

This will be our last year as lead Sunday school teachers (September 2024-May 2025). To ensure the future of children's Sunday school and a smooth transition, we would like some interested volunteers to assist this year. Come get acquainted with the youngest members of St. Paul's and see what Sunday School is all about. If you have any questions or are interested in helping with this vital ministry of the church you can contact Betty Hinshaw and Carole Ostrowski for more information.

Ensembles normally perform at the 11:00 service but occasionally at the 8:30 service. Ability to read music not required. If interested, contact Ted Turner, director of music at music@stpaulsdurham.org

Souls to the Polls!

Did you know that since the last presidential election in 2020, North Carolina has implemented voting laws that can present barriers to some citizens? For many years, our friends at St. Joseph's AME church have organized a "Souls to the Polls" event on the first Sunday of early voting. This festive parade raises awareness about early voting and helps spread information about voting requirements and opportunities. You are invited! Please join other St. Paul's members on October 20th, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. when, with flags waving, the car caravan will travel from St. Joseph's to NCCU's School of Law early voting precinct. (Since it's Early Voting, you can cast your ballot without worrying about being at a specific precinct.) This caravan helps promote the importance of voting in such a polarized and dynamic election. If you would like more information or have questions please reach out to either Bee Ellertson (bellertson@icloud.com) or Megan Cunningham (mcunni16@gmail.com). Hope to see you there!
