

San Juan County Museum Association Membership Form

We hope you enjoyed your experience here at the Salmon Ruins Site, Museum, and Research Facility. We are proud to represent the San Juan County Museum Association, and we have many exciting plans and ideas for the future!

The San Juan County Museum Association manages and operates the Site, Museum, Research Center and Library here at Salmon Ruins. The Association is a non-profit organization dedicated to educating the public about the preservation of archaeological, historical, and cultural resources in the Four Corners area. Your support is essential to the work and success of our efforts to preserve the past for the future.
