

Honors and Awards

United States Member of Congress, Douglas Bosco, Certificate of Appreciation presented to Spinal Cord Injury Network International outstanding service to individuals and families with special needs.

Third Senate District, California Legislature, Certificate of Recognition presented to Spinal Cord Injury Network International for services and support to spinal cord injury population.

Victim Rights Advocate of the Year 1990, Lennice Ambrose by California Trial Lawyers Association in 1995 named changed to Consumer Attorneys of California.

California State Senate, Certificate of Recognition presented to Spinal Cord Injury Network International in Honor of Outstanding Service to the Community.

Santa Rosa Lioness Club, Certificate of Appreciation presented to Lennice Ambrose in appreciation of invaluable services to the community.

For Those Who Care, a volunteer recognition program of KRON-TV salutes Lennice Ambrose for making a difference in the lives of others through volunteer efforts in our community.

JC Penney Golden Rule Award Certification of Appreciation, Spinal Cord Injury Network International, appreciation for community service endeavors.

California Legislature Assembly Resolution providing service and information to victims and families of accidents resulting in spinal cord injury, and, in recognition of the Spinal Cord Injury Network International many achievements on behalf of individuals with spinal cord injury and families.

City of Santa Rosa City Merit Award 1990, for outstanding achievement in the category of Community Service – Individual, Spinal Cord Injury Network International.

Project Workability training site Spinal Cord Injury Network International by Montgomery High School, Santa Rosa, CA, provides young disabled student's opportunity to participate.

Santa Rosa City Schools WorkAbility Program for providing a realistic, supportive setting for disabled students to learn and grow. The community classroom is a vital part of the WorkAbility program and its success is due in large to Spinal Cord Injury Network International staffs' participation and commitment.

A Thousand Points of Light awarded by The White House, Office of National Service by 41st President George H. W. Bush, intended as a national tribute of the highest order to every American who makes a positive difference, each day the President recognizes those who are successfully addressing our most pressing social problems through community service. Lennice Ambrose and Spinal Cord Injury Network International, have achieved a place in national fame both were chosen by President Bush as "478th Daily Point of Light."