

THE REVEREND BUTTER

Reverend Butter has been sculpting ice professionally since July of 1997. Sculpting isn't just a passion for Butter, its an obsession. His skill has been refined by working with legends in the ice game and sculpts ice all-year-round. From Texas to Tokyo, Reverend Butter will travel the world to make sure your event is one never to forget. He is the producer of the "Magnificent 7" ice sculpting competition at Discovery Green in Houston, which features some of the best carvers in the world each January. The consummate performer, Butter brings a new level of excitement to ice sculpting. He is the owner of DLG Ice Factory in Houston, Texas.
