

Membership Application

Thank you for seeking to join BaRCSE. We are always looking for more people to join our crew. There are no membership dues or other requirements, only a desire to help homeless and neglected basset hounds. Please complete the below application to get started. Included in the form are questions as to whether or not you are interested in various activities. If you check yes to any of these, members of various committees will contact you to talk about the different activities. You are under no obligation to actually participate.
