Time is running out to purchase Hot Springs Village Concerts Association memberships for $100 each, which includes tickets to all five performances. This year's lineup will be special.

September opens with Suzanne O Davis performing "Tapestry: The Carole King Song Book," Sept. 6-8. With her top-performing band, Davis amazes audiences with her talent and heartfelt tribute to Carole King.

The Broadway Boys, a collection of the hottest male voices currently working on the New York stage, make their appearance on Oct. 11-13. An evening of show tunes with a contemporary flare and explosive energy are sure to please. This group invents new arrangements never heard before.

Nov. 8-10 will be a night to remember with "Shadows of the 60s," a Motown night with the intensity of the original performances. These talented musicians and singers have worked with the likes of the Drifters, Chuck Berry, Gladys Knight and the Pips, Donna Summer and Peter Frampton.

Come reminisce with Presley, Perkins, Lewis & Cash as they celebrate the Sun Records stars with rock and roll classics Feb. 14-16. Sing along to "Blue Suede Shoes," "Hound Dog," "Great Balls of Fire" and "Walk the Line."

The 2017-2018 season will end with The Doo Wop Project March 14-16. Triple Threat, stars with a five-piece band, tear it up with showmanship. Performing on Broadway, with TV credits and Grammy nominations, these guys can do it all.

Performances are Wednesday (Series I), Thursday (Series II) and Friday (Series III), beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Annual membership cost is $100 per member for the five-concert season.

Tickets are selling ahead of last year. Order yours now at _____ or call the Ponce de Leon Center at 922-4231. Credit cards accepted.
