NOTICE

The Hon. Edward M. Harrington, Patent Attorney of St. Louis, Mo., in his letter to us dated June 25th, 1911, states:

"United States Letters Patents have been issued to The Champion Pecan Machine Company on various machines which it manufactures and sells and these patents may be infringed not only by constructing the entire patented machines without license, but, also, by contributing to the infringement of the patents by making parts without license which are knowingly intended for assembly in machines constructed in accordance with the patented machines."
