

Research Your Family Tree

Interested in learning about your family history but not sure where to start? Meet with Diane Blomgren, a professional genealogist who will show you how to research your ancestors using Ancestry.com and how to build your family tree. She'll also show you other useful websites like Find a Grave, Newspapers.com, and Family Search.

This offer includes four hours of research and presentation.

If you're not computer savvy, Diane can research for you and present the tree she has put together for you.

Estimated Value: $160
