Kristen Cane – Program Manager, Arlington County Sheriff’s Department to Appear on “Beyond Just Talk with S. L. Young” on WOL DC 1450 AM

Arlington, VA – On Tuesday, May 19th at 11 a.m. EST, the guest on “Beyond Just Talk with S. L. Young” will be Kristen Cane who is responsible for managing services at the Arlington County Detention Facility (ACDF) to help, inspire, and educate inmates.

Mrs. Cane started her career with the Arlington County Sheriff’s Department as a Deputy Sheriff after graduating from the “The Northern Virginia Criminal Justice Training Academy” as a certified law enforcement officer, jailor, and warrant process server. In 2008, she became a program manager at the ACDF.

In her current position, she manages over 100 hundred volunteers and staff for more than 50 different programs. Mrs. Cane’s responsibilities include: approving programs, training/supervising volunteers/staff, and assisting with program design/implementation.

Mrs. Cane holds a Master of Science in Social Work with a minor in Public Policy from the Columbia University, along with a Bachelors of Arts in Psychology from Stony Brook University. Also, she has extensive experience as a case and program manager --- having worked as a Licensed Graduate Social Worker (LGSW) in both Washington, DC and New York, NY. Furthermore, Mrs. Cane was employed by the District of Columbia’s Department of Employment Services in Washington, DC as a manpower development specialist. In this position, she helped coordinate the District’s Summer Youth Employment and Federal Government Internship Programs.

“Beyond Just Talk with S. L. Young’s” host is honored to have Mrs. Cane – who has spent countless hours to help, encourage, and develop inmates to become productive members of society – on this show. It takes a very special person – like Mrs. Cane – to manage this type of work.
