

Dorothy Mae Winter, 89, of Port Austin died Friday, Oct. 19, 2012, at Hurley Medical Center in Flint.

She was born Aug. 24, 1923, in Belleville, Ill., daughter of the late George and Clara (Kamper) Reinneck. She married Waldron Winter Nov. 19, 1943. Colonel Winter preceded her in death in May 1991.

Dorothy was a small business owner for more than 25 years. As part of a military family, she traveled all over the world. She enjoyed collecting, playing golf and playing bridge.

Dorothy is survived by her children, Sandra Lynn Morrow of Lexington, Ky., Michon Rae (Michael) Eads of Austin, Texas, Waldron John (Robin) Winter of Smyrna, Del., Mary Beth (George) Martinez of Imlay City, and Joseph Michael (Claudia) Winter of Livonia; 12 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren. She is also survived by her dog, Hercules.

A funeral mass will be conducted at 10 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 25, 2012, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin. Burial will follow in Arlington National Cemetery in Virginia.

Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at the Knoblock Funeral Home in Kinde and from 9 a.m. until the time of service Thursday at the church.

At the request of the family, in lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Gold Star Wives of America.
