

“Moving Beyond the Pain”

Grief Recovery “Life Discovery” Intensive Personal Growth Workshop

Recovering from what may feel like the Unrecoverable

How are You? You reply... “Fine.” Which may mean “Feelings Inside Not Expressed”

You keep busy, pretend you are okay, and hope time will make things better. Upsetting or traumatic events, relationship struggles, and things you "just cannot put your finger on", cause you to feel anxious, isolated, angry, disconnected or perhaps unworthy. You are no doubt tired of feeling this way and would like to move beyond the pain. Supporters try to give advice that is well-meaning but unhelpful, so you put on a brave face, and continue to suffer in silence.

You would move forward, if only you knew how...

Grief Recovery “Life Discovery” Intensive Personal Growth Workshops and Individual Programs open hearts, minds and doors. Thought-provoking, educational and experiential, participants explore unresolved pain from their “grief-inducing experiences” including Death, Divorce, Family or Other Relationship Struggles or Estrangement, Empty Nest, Life/Career Transitions, Loss of Safety, Trust, Health, Faith.
