This months Newsletter Dedication from Kathy & Chuck Bonacci:

“Thank you” to all Twinsburg Residents, First Responders and all others who dedicate themselves to making Twinburg a great community!!

Now that the weather is matching the season, thoughts are turning to Christmas our November Open House is on November 22 to make room for Thanksgiving. We will have a few guests from Locust Grove. We are still working on our virtual version of “The Tales of Locust Grove” we will all be veteran film makers at the end of the project.

Ongoing thanks to Andy Krupa who, almost single handedly, has kept up the grounds at the Museum over the Summer and Fall.....trimming, mowing, planting, weeding, pruning, repairing. He is amazing! Recently he has had some help from THS students Mady and Dominic Mistur. In addition, Mady will help get the Riley House ready for the much-awaited Open House 2:00-5:00 on Nov. 22.

Christmas is coming to the museum on Sunday December 13 from 2:00 to 5:00. This is a departure from our usual party at the Riley House We will have music and decorations but no food. Come and wear your Christmas mask. It is a family friendly event. The Friends of the Library have a beautiful selection of festive masks in all colors. Great gift idea and great way to support our sister organization.

Our gift shop will be open too and we will have our Twinsburg merch on sale. Good way to gift our out of town friends. We take credit cards, checks, cash and PAYPAL. We will have our annual quilt raffle too. This will be the last chance to get your ticket. If you already have a ticket, we will give you a call.

We have eliminated our PO Box for mail.

Please make sure any correspondence is sent to: The Twinsburg Historical Society

Beverly Klimas with the help of Frank Klimas and Diana Kriedman have been working hard at the museum and the Riley House. They not only keep things clean and tidy, they are constantly reinventing the exhibits. They delve into the storage and bring out different treasures all of the time. For those of you who have not visited in a while you will enjoy how they have made the old new again.

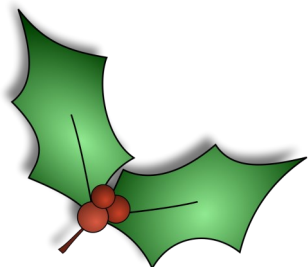

We also have a second-floor office space available for rent. It is in the Roach House that houses the Twinsburg Chamber of Commerce on Church Street, next to the Congregational Church. Could not ask for nicer neighbors. For more information call us and leave a message.

Please join the Facebook page too. That way you can keep up with the latest news. We count on you to check our website, the Facebook page and our press releases in the local papers. Watch for the signs in the wooden frame in front of the Barn too. We do all we can to keep you informed.

Doll House Raffle ending. Great Christmas Gift for someone!!

Back in April of this year we announced a unique & special raffle to benefit preserving Twinsburg's Italianate designed Roach House. The raffle is for a two story, 6 room dollhouse. Ticket sales have been a little slow with covid-19 restricting everyone's movement, therefore we have decided to draw the winning ticket from existing sales during our December 13 Open House. At only $5.00 per ticket, your odds could never be better. Interested? Either contact Kim Malusky, Audrey Kancler, Roy Meier or send a self addressed stamped envelope along with your check with your name, address & telephone number plus the number of tickets desired to Dollhouse Raffle c/o Twinsburg Historical Society, 8996 Darrow Road, Twinsburg, Ohio 44087-2127. We will immediately send out your ticket stubs. Remember tickets must be purchased before the December 13 deadline.
