East District Commissioner, Garry McFee made the motion to approve the agenda for today's meeting with West District Commissioner, Kyle White making the second. Motion carried.

The Commission welcomes all those who come in to attend the opening of their meetings. Anyone in the County is invited to their weekly meetings.

Debbie Davis and Steven Steiner, Youth Specialists with University of Missouri met with the Commission to discuss ways to get our youth and volunteers more engaged in activities. Discussion was had on activities they are involved in with kids in the County. They also praised the Commission on the support the DeKalb County Commission has always given the extension.

TJ Sethi, County Engagement Specialist for the University Extension met with the Commission to discuss their budget and advise that they are asking for no increase in funding for 2020. That amount remains at $11,000 from the County to the Extension.

Road & Bridge Supervisor, Bill Gray met with the Commission to discuss that budget as well as a BRO project for 2020, culverts, tubes and brush letters. He also advised that his department had put up 13 Purple Heart signs in the County in support of our Purple Heart recipients. The Commission will order 6 more signs and the entire County will then have exposure to these signs showing the County's support.

County Clerk, Melissa Meek wanted to clarify the new software program that the Assessor was acquiring. Eagleview is a system that can be utilized by more than just the Assessor's office. Road & bridge and the Sheriff's department can use it when dealing with the Counties infrastructure. The program will be a huge benefit to those departments.

The Commission revisited appointments for the different entities and no changes are being made this year. Presiding Commissioner, Kyle Carroll, Region D and DDRJ, West District Commissioner, Kyle White, Tri-County Health, Region D and ACCD 911 and East District Commissioner, Garry McFee, Extension Council and an alternate for ACCD 911.

Harold Allison and Penny Gans will remain as Emergency Management Director and Assistant Director at this time with the Commission revisiting the position in October.

County Clerk, Melissa Meek and Commission discussed the budget and talks about the budget will continue until it is finalized on the 27 of January.

With no other business before the Commission they adjourned. The next meeting of the Commission will be January 21, 2020 at 9 a.m.
