

She Wouldn't Take Off Her Boots: Women's Resistance in the Holocaust

Commemorate Kristallnacht and women's resistance during the Holocaust with a screening of the documentary film She Wouldn't Take Off Her Boots, followed by a discussion with sculptor Victoria Milstein. Victoria has lived and studied in New York City and Jerusalem and recently completed North Carolina's first women's Holocaust Monument, "She Wouldn't Take off Her Boots," located in Greensboro. She is also the founder of the organization Women of the Shoah, created to honor the legacy of women during the Shoah.

Sunday November 12, 6:30-8pm

Levin JCC

1937 W Cornwallis Rd, Durham

Please RSVP by November 7

calendar.jewishforgood.org
or scan here:

FREE
ADMISSION

Questions?

E-mail Madeline Seltman, mseltman@jewishforgood.org

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

