Mother Prayer

Dear Lord,

today we pray for mothers-- our own mothers, and mothers everywhere,
who have made such a major contribution to the good qualities we have,
sometimes through genetics, more often through great effort and patient instruction, and who have done their best to gently polish away our rough edges.

Lord, please bless our mothers for the endless hours of time they spent
and the boundless energy they invested in us.

Bless our mothers for their sacrifices on our behalf as they often gave up or deferred their own dreams

so that we could have ours.
Bless our mothers for always being there for us, for being the person we know we can turn to

when we need comfort, encouragement, or just a hug.
Bless our mothers for making a home for us
where we could feel safe, where we felt we belonged.

Most of all, Lord,
unconditional love, for loving us no matter what,
and for frequently showing love in ways that make us feel valued and cherished.

mightily.

Strengthen them, soothe them, wrap them in Your infinite love and shower them with blessings too numerous to count, too magnificent to describe.

We love them, admire them, respect them,
and we wish that You would give them back

many times the good they gave to us.

In Jesus' name we pray; Amen.

TONY'S BLOG

After so many years, my memories of my mother are all still so strong. She only had a high school education, but always seem to have the right answers for my problems. My mother had a drivers license but never drove anywhere. She was afraid to drive so she would depend on me to take her everywhere. Of course, I also got the blame for not driving her. Being the first born, she was always there, so I felt that I had to be there for her. This is what also kept us very close. The day I got married and moved so far away to Clark from Newark, she told me how happy she was that I now had someone else to share my life with. Love to all mothers.
