Exciting things are planned for the 2nd Annual Lake Alfred Heritage Festival. It's our goal to present unique, interesting, educational aspects of Lake Alfred History, as well as, our rich American Heritage over various decades and centuries. As you explore each section of the Festival throughout the day, you'll be delighted and informed at the same time. Of course, you'll also find sections that are just plain fun!!

OUTSTANDING AMERICAN HISTORY DEMONSTRATIONS

★ Jim (Sawgrass) Boettner, Florida resident and well known Indian Historian is a member of the Muskogee Creek Indian Tribe. He and son Cody, will present Florida's Indian culture and native dance. Cody Boettner was the 2019 World Class Championship Hoop Dance Winner conducted by Heard Museum in Arizona.

More details at: (www.jimsawgrass.com) (<https://heard.org/event/hoop/>)

★ This year with the help and support of the Florida Frontiersman, Inc., a non-profit organization committed to preserving our American heritage and values, we're introducing "Lake Alfred Junction" an authentic 1700-1800's Pioneer Village. You'll find Settlers, Soldiers, Trades People, Indians and others displaying period appropriate clothing and surroundings. Some items will be for sale and some for history lessons. Feel free to interact and ask questions. The Florida Frontiersmen, Inc are sponsors of the Alafia River Rendezvous which is conducted each January on their Homeland, FL property. We hope to feature "Lake Alfred Junction" year after year. More details at: <https://www.alafiariverrendezvous.org/>

★ Civil/Seminole War uniforms, artifacts, and history presented by Glenn Barfoot, Leonard Capps, and associates. Additional features include History of the Rosenwald Schools by Historian/Researcher, Dean Moss McCracken; Historic Quilt Display and Quilt Appraisals; Education on Historic Use of Florida Plants and More!
