

The Village Campus

The Village Campus is a 29 acre site located off Hunter Road and South Reimer Avenue in San Marcos, Texas that will co-locate many major social service organizations as well as government agencies in Hays County. Working together, the Village agencies can reduce duplication and provide comprehensive services to people in need.

The Village Campus will be constructed in three phases.

Phase I - already completed is home to the CFPO-PALS Youth Sports Complex. (Christian Federation of Police Officers – Police Athletic League Sports).

Phase II – already designed Village Main building, a 22,000 sf facility that will house (4) partner agencies. (Community Action, Inc., Early Childhood Intervention – Homespun, Family Justice Center and Women, Infants and Children) Partner agencies are in the process of raising construction funds at this time.

Phase III – to be designed for construction the new home of Hays County Food Bank.

