

Nabozniak, Mary

Mary Nabozniak, 88, of Bad Axe, passed away very peacefully Wednesday, May 28, 2008 at Courtney Manor, Bad Axe.

She was born Aug. 22, 1919 in Hamtramck, daughter of the late Michael and Frances (Masluk) Myskiw.

She married Nicholas Nabozniak May 4, 1941 at Immaculate Conception Ukrainian Catholic Church, Hamtramck. He preceded her in death March 25, 1972.

Mary moved to Bad Axe in 1996 to be with her family.

Surviving are one son, Nicholas C. Nabozniak and his wife, Cora, of Knoxville, Tenn.; one daughter, Barbara M. Weitenberner and her husband, Hank, of Bad Axe; five grandchildren, Nicole Nabozniak, Hank (Kami), Rick (Kelli) and Tim Weitenberner, all of Bad Axe, and Jeff (Leslee) Weitenberner of Marysville; three great-grandchildren, Dana, Lane and Ellee Weitenberner; and two sisters, Mrs. Helen Lily of Lexington, and Mrs. Anne (John) Kushner of Warren.

One son, Sp4 Myron R. Nabozniak, was killed Sept. 24, 1970 in action in Vietnam.

Friends may call from 7 to 9 p.m. Friday at the Champagne Funeral Home, Elkton.

Funeral Mass will be conducted at 11 a.m. Saturday, May 31, 2008 at Immaculate Conception Ukrainian Catholic Church, Hamtramck. Burial will follow at Mt. Olivet Cemetery, Detroit.