GENERAL ADMONISHMENT TO PURCHASER

My name is Pamela A McManis I am the Substitute Trustee for all properties posted under my name, I have been duly appointed Substitute Trustee under a perpetual power of attorney appointment or otherwise, I have been requested to sell the properties offered for sale today, and I am setting the following reasonable conditions for sale, which are being announced before bidding is opened for the first sale of the day held by me in this County. All property offered for sale today will be sold "AS IS" without any expressed or implied warranties, except as to warranties of title, to the highest bidder for cash or cashiers check. If you do not have cash or cashiers checks ready for tender immediately following the sale then do not bid, if the purchaser does not tender the funds the sale will be reconvened and the property re-auctioned. Purchaser buys the property "at the purchaser's own risk" per Texas statutory law and "at his peril" per Texas case law, including HENK V. FIRST SOUTHERN PROPERTIES, INC., 586 S.W.2d 617 (Tex.Civ.App. 1979). Purchaser is not a consumer as that term is defined under Texas law. The sale of the property by Substitute Trustee is also subject to the following:

1. Loan reinstatement, payoff, or any other pre-sale arrangement with the Lender to satisfy the default.
2. Any court-ordered or statutory restraint of sale arising out of bankruptcy, probate, divorce, receivership, or other court proceedings involving any person claiming a legal or equitable interest in the property.
3. Any other claim by those persons obligated on the debt that may render the sale void or voidable, including but not limited to claims of insufficient notice.
4. Any ad valorem taxes for the current and prior years which are applicable against the property.
5. Any other undisclosed matter which may affect the validity of the sale or act as a defense or bar to the foreclosure proceeding.
6. Any errors in the calculation of the bidding instructions or errors in reading the bid made by either the Trustee, Mortgage Servicer or Beneficiary.

The interests in the property being sold are limited to those expressly warranted by the Grantor in the Deed of Trust, subject to any exceptions referenced in the Deed of Trust or appearing of record to the extent the same are still in effect and shall not cover any property that has been released from the lien of the Deed of Trust. No representation of any kind, either expressed or implied, is made by Substitute Trustee regarding the nature or status of the property, the quality of title, or any interests that may be superior to the deed of trust interests being foreclosed. Purchaser takes the property subject to such superior interests as well as any and all defects and shall be solely responsible for the resolution of each.

In the event a defect or other problem with the foreclosure process is discovered that may invalidate the sale, the consideration paid will be returned to Purchaser as the sole and absolute remedy. In the event of any claim or action brought by any person other than Purchaser requiring or resulting in the invalidation of the sale and rescission of the Substitute Trustee's Deed, Purchaser's damages resulting therefrom are limited to the consideration paid to Substitute Trustee and the sole and absolute remedy shall be the return to Purchaser of the consideration paid.

If you are the successful bidder, you will be required to sign an acknowledgment that this admonishment was read prior to Substitute Trustee commencing his or her sales and that the sale was subject to these terms. Any questions?

Section 5 of the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act (RESPA) requires the following: • HUD must develop a Special Information Booklet to help persons borrowing money to finance the purchase of residential real estate to better understand the nature and costs of real estate settlement services; • Each lender must provide the booklet to all applicants from whom it receives or for whom it prepares a written application to borrow money to finance the purchase of residential real estate; • Lenders must prepare and distribute with the Booklet a Good Faith Estimate of the settlement costs that the borrower is likely to incur in connection with the settlement. These disclosures are mandatory.

Section 4(a) of RESPA mandates that HUD develop and prescribe this standard form to be used at the time of loan settlement to provide full disclosure of all charges imposed upon the borrower and seller. These are third party disclosures that are designed to provide the borrower with pertinent information during the settlement process in order to be a better shopper. The Public Reporting Burden for this collection of information is estimated to average one hour per response, including the time for reviewing instructions searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This agency may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.
