What they do

Across the globe, there are millions of people who have been forced to leave their homes due to issues such as war, persecution, and natural disaster.

People are often left with no other option but to risk everything and flee with the hope of finding somewhere safe, secure, and stable for them and their families to settle.

However, it is not an easy journey to make and that's why foodKIND intends to be there!

With the number of refugees and displaced people continually rising, the conditions in and around the refugee camps, detention centers and key routes are rapidly deteriorating with people struggling to fulfill their basic human needs. One of the biggest issues faced is the lack of consistent and sufficient food supply in these areas.

At foodKIND, our aim is to fill that gap and provide as many meals as possible to those who no longer have the option to provide for themselves.

Our work is mission based, focusing on the provision and distribution of food in areas where there are large concentrations of refugees and displaced people and where there is a significant absence of consistent and sufficient food supply.

We are a humanitarian organization with a straightforward mission: to provide food and compassion in situations where people do not have access to regular food supplies and where basic human needs are not being met.

We believe that by providing food on a personal and humane level, we are not only filling empty stomachs but we are also bringing hope and dignity to situations where there may be none. Our vision is that every refugee and displaced person in crisis has access to a consistent and sufficient food supply and is treated in a humane and dignified manner while accessing this basic human need.

Vision

A world where every refugee and displaced person has consistent, sufficient and dignified access to food where ever they are.
