Hi! Just an update on Agostinho. We were able to find his father!!! It was not a super happy emotional reunion. Apparently when Agostinho first left home years ago, the father tried tracked him down in the city and tried to get him to come home and he wouldn't. In 2015, another center also tried to take Agostinho home and he didn't stay long. I think the father isn't super hopeful that it will be different this time.

We are considering placing Agostinho in our transitional home so that he has 3 months of preparation before going home. This might also be good for his father as he'd visit at home on weekends so his family will have the opportunity to see if he's really changed or not.

Please keep praying for Agostinho!
