

Exactly

Rachael Martin 6,6,2016

Exactly means without discrepancy (used to emphasize the accuracy of a figure or description).
Synonyms: precisely, entirely, absolutely, completely, totally, just, quite, in every way, in every respect, one hundred percent, every inch

You know exactly what we need Lord. You know exactly what the church needs. You have entirely what we need to make it through today. Lord, You are precisely Who we need to be by our side with each obstacle, with each challenge, and with every situation we encounter today. Father – as we go through this week, we know that You have planned out completely which paths to take and just who we will encounter as we go.

Lord we want to be totally in Your will and we know it's possible to be full and complete in You!

We know Father, that Your plans for us are to prosper and give us hope. Lord as we face this week and all of the things that we know and don't know ahead, we thank You that You will give Your angels charge over us and our family at exactly the right time and place.

Father You don't miss – You don't tire – You don't mess up – You don't give up – You don't let us down and You know 100 percent everything that we're facing.

We give our thoughts and dreams, and plans, and agenda to You today to make sense of. We thank You for all that You will help us get through. We thank You for peace in the midst of chaos, violence, and uncertainty.

We thank You Father for Your Son – You sacrificed Him and He poured out in every way, enough for us to be able to say thank You for forgiveness and for love, and for purpose, and for healing – for restoration and for strength because Jesus Christ gave every inch of Himself so that we could have someone to believe and trust in when everything else is uncertain. Lord make us vessels of honor and help us to be there for others and not always thinking about ourselves so that we can help grow Your kingdom – for Your glory! In Jesus name, Amen!

Ephesians 3:12 - Because of Christ and our faith in him, we can now come boldly and confidently into God's presence.

Ephesians 4:11-16 - Now these are the gifts Christ gave to the church: the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, and the pastors and teachers. ¹² Their responsibility is to equip God's people to do his work and build up the church, the body of Christ. ¹³ This will continue until we all come to such unity in our faith and knowledge of God's Son that we will be mature in the Lord, measuring up to the full and complete standard of Christ. ¹⁴ Then we will no longer be immature like children. We won't be tossed and blown about by every wind of new teaching. We will not be influenced when people try to trick us with lies so clever they sound like the truth. ¹⁵ Instead, we will speak the truth in love, growing in every way more and more like Christ, who is the head of his body, the church. ¹⁶ He makes the whole body fit together perfectly. As each part does its own special work, it helps the other parts grow, so that the whole body is healthy and growing and full of love.
