

All American Dream (I Don't Feel Part of It)

When I see the commercials on TV
Wonderful people
With beautiful teeth...
Well, they're talking at me,
But, they're not talking to me.
And, when they're cruising 'round the Burger King
Looking like the All-American Dream...
I don't feel part of it.
I don't feel part of it.

Alienation
Everybody knows it personally.

The spotlight's made out of bullet-proof glass.
You gotta run smart;
And, you gotta run fast.
For dreaming of Babylon,
Won't make mana from heaven come.
And, when you're jumping for that big, brass ring...
Just remember that "the play's the thing".
But,
I don't feel part of it.
I don't feel part of it.

Alienation
Everybody knows it personally.
