Position Opening: Summer Program Internship—2019

Position Opening

Mountain Roots Program Interns have the opportunity to learn about experiential education and program logistics. Mountain Roots is planning to offer seven weeks of day camp this summer in the Brevard, NC area. We work with a range of populations through our various programs. And as a mission-driven organization, one thing that all of our programs have in common is striving towards this common goal: to provide discovery and outdoor learning experiences with a focus on environmentally responsible and community centered living. We offer programs that revolve around leadership and group development; nature; and the arts. Summer 2019 Interns will have the opportunity to work with all 7 weeks of our multi-faceted Day Camp as well as the opportunity to work on program development and assessment.

Qualifications

Program Interns are directly responsible to the Mountain Roots Executive Director. Our interns may range from a variety of backgrounds, but must have certain interests and qualifications. These include the following:

- Working toward a four-year degree, or the equivalent in work experience
- Interest in a degree in outdoor leadership/recreation/education; elementary education, the arts and sciences, non-profit management, and other related fields
- Experience (and/or interest) working with youth ages 4-10
- Wilderness First Responder (preferred) or Standard First Aid / CPR
- Experience working with individuals with varied backgrounds, abilities, and cultures
- Interest in gaining specific youth development work skills, or administrative experience
- An excitement about serving others in an outdoor setting through challenge and experiential education, as well as a belief in environmentally responsible actions and education
- Competent and comfortable leadership and teaching styles (and an interest to develop these)
- Interest in program and curriculum development preferred
