

Fruit of the Day Cobbler with Almonds

This cobbler is great because you can use ANY fruit – fresh or frozen. That’s why I call it “fruit of the day”. My favorites are apples, pears, peaches, blueberries, strawberries, and raspberries (or a combination of berries).

6 cups fresh or frozen fruit pieces or berries (cut whole fruits into 1-inch pieces; thaw frozen fruit)

1/4 cup confectioners’ sugar

16.3-ounce can refrigerated reduced-fat buttermilk biscuits (makes 8 biscuits)

1 large egg, lightly beaten

1/3 cup slivered almonds

Preheat oven to 375 degrees F.

Combine fruit and sugar in a large bowl and mix well to combine. Transfer mixture to a shallow baking dish (the dish should be big enough to arrange 8 biscuits on top). Place biscuits on top of fruit. Brush biscuits with egg and sprinkle with almonds. Bake 12-15 minutes, until biscuits are golden brown.

Serves 8