

God Talk

"Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight"
(Hebrews 4:13).

Scripture teaches that God is powerful, able to control the physical world and perform astonishing miracles, but above all, it teaches that God loves you with an endless love. He is never far, and is waits patiently to listen to anything you want to say.

The great news is, He's big enough and strong enough to handle your questions, concerns, frustrations or fears. He has unlimited resources , and isn't like some distant father tolerating you, but He really is interested in every aspect of your life.

"For the Lord is always good. He is always loving and kind, and his faithfulness goes on and on to each succeeding generation" (Psalm 100:5 TLB).

He knows you're trying—but without communication there is no relationship
He knows you. He wants you to talk because He knows it has a way of releasing feelings that need to get out.

God wants us to place our burdens on Him. 1 Peter 5:7 is very clear about this "Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you." He desires you to talk openly, honestly, and sincerely from your heart.

Let's get real, He knows what you are thinking anyway. You can't fool God or hide anything from Him. God knows you better than you know yourself. The closer you get to God, the more you can enjoy ongoing conversations with Him,
