GREETING

PRAYER OF THE DAY

KIDS' SERMON

FIRST READING Job 19:23-27a

Job suffers the loss of children, wealth, and health. Accused by his companions of wrongdoing, he knows himself to be innocent. Here, in the midst of his suffering, Job clings to the radical hope that his vindicator, his redeemer, lives; and that one day he himself will see God.

♪ PSALM 17:1-9

LORD, hear a cause that is just,
pay heed to my cry.

Turn your ear to my prayer,
no deceit is on my lips. R.

I kept my feet firmly in your paths;
there was no faltering in my steps.
I am here and I call, you will hear me, O
God.

Turn your ear to me; hear my words. R.

Guard me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
As for me, in my justice I shall see your face
and be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory. R.

SECOND READING 2 Thessalonians 2:1-5, 13-17

This portion of the letter provides encouragement for the church at Thessalonica during a time of confusion and opposition, as some allowed their concern over Jesus' imminent return to divert them from the central teachings of the gospel.

🎵 GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Now the Feast pg. 7

GOSPEL Luke 20:27-38

Some Sadducees, who do not believe in the resurrection of the dead, try to trap Jesus. They formulate the convoluted case of a serial widow who marries a succession of seven brothers. Jesus responds by teaching about God to whom all are alive and in whom all relationships are fulfilled.

TIME OF REFLECTION

♪ OFFERING ACS 1025 If We Live, We Live to the Lord

Refrain:

The musical score for the refrain is written on three staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The melody is simple and hymn-like. The lyrics are: 'If we live, we live to the Lord. If we die, we die to the Lord. So then, wheth-er we live or wheth-er we die, we are the Lord's.' The score includes triplet markings over the words 'wheth-er' on the second and third lines.

If we live, we live to the Lord. If we die, we die to the Lord. So then, wheth-er we live or wheth-er we die, we are the Lord's.
