

BDEIG MEMBERSHIP FORM

BDEIG membership year is on a revolving basis. This means the membership is from the time your dues are paid, inclusive of four newsletters (February, May, August, & November) . New members may be backdated to receive the most recent newsletter. Thereafter, dues are due annually on your anniversary date. Reminder notices are mailed and your membership "Dues Due" date appears on your mailing label. Please complete all areas of this form for all transactions.

Advantages of being a member of the Brazilian Dimensional Embroidery International Guild (BDEIG)

- Only Members receive The B.E. Wrap-Up, a quarterly guild publication. The B.E. Wrap-Up contains articles related to Brazilian embroidery as well as a variety of guild focused informational columns. Also included with the newsletter is a separate publication of education projects for members to enjoy.
- Only Members are allowed to attend the annual BDEIG seminar (typically held in the Pacific Northwest) or attend BDEIG virtual, on-line classes taught by talented designers and/or teachers.
- Only Members receive an annual Seminar Supplement with full class descriptions and color pictures of the designs offered in the annual seminar.
- Only Members are allowed to shop and participate in the 'Merchants Mall' which runs during Seminar
- Only Members are allowed to vote for the BDEIG Executive Board
- Only Members receive a copy of the annual Membership Resources and Directory. The Membership Resources and Directory is the handbook for all guild members.
- Only Members are allowed to advertise in At A Glance (see below for more information)
- Members pay 10% less for advertising in The B.E. Wrap-Up
