

Ney, Jeanne E.

Jeanne E. Ney, R.N., 77, resident of Bad Axe, passed away Sunday, Dec. 2, 2007 at the Huron County Medical Care Facility, following a courageous battle with cancer.

Jeanne was born March 26, 1930 in Detroit to the late Thomas and Gertrude (Mousseau) Trompics.

Jeanne E. Trompics and Matthew G. Ney were married on Feb. 5, 1955. He preceded her in death on Oct. 15, 1982.

She attended high school in Detroit and was a member of the basketball team.

Jeanne graduated from St. Mary's Nursing College in Livonia with a nursing degree. She was employed at the former Hubbard Hospital in Bad Axe, and for 14 years at Courtney Manor. She also was an office nurse for Drs. Brouillette, Herrington, Jean and Chow. Jeanne was an avid bowler at Almac Lanes and Bad Axe Lanes, and bowled at many countrywide bowling tournaments. She enjoyed playing poker and going to the casino.

She is survived by two sons, Matt "Motz" (Bonnie) Ney of Houston, Texas, and Richard Ney of Saudi Arabia; three daughters, Amy (Chuck) Ruth of Port Austin, Trudy (Steve) Butch of Bad Axe and Kimberly Purtill of Grand Rapids; 10 grandchildren, Jacque Zepeda, Amanda and Virginia Ney of Houston, Texas, Andrew Ruth of Mt. Pleasant, Sydney Ruth of Clinton Township, Conner, Evan and Austin Purtill of Grand Rapids, Stephanie and Sarah Butch of Bad Axe.

Cremation has taken place. By Jeanne's request there will not be a visitation and the memorial service will be private.

Arrangements are being handled by the MacAlpine Funeral Home, Bad Axe.
