

Matthew A. Berger, MD
Announces Social Workers' Presentation
Kalahari Resort & Conference Center
September 22 through September 25, 2019

I am very excited and pleased to announce two Licensed Clinical Social Workers (LCSWs) in our practice have been accepted to present at the National Association of Social Workers Pennsylvania Chapter Annual Conference to be held from September 22 through September 25, 2019 at the Kalahari Resort & Conference Center in the Poconos. This conference is attended by more than 500 social workers from across the state. Over the course of several days, these professionals will exchange their combined knowledge and expertise.

Andrea Oravec, LCSW and Marietta Scalise-Warnitsky, LCSW will co-present on Suicide: Impact on Clinicians in which the effects of this tragedy will be discussed, and self-care strategies will be explored.

Additionally, Marietta will present Paw Prints on a Broken Heart which will discuss the importance of acknowledging and working through grief felt after a beloved pet passes away.

Andrea and Marietta are honored and enthusiastic to be able to present their experiences and knowledge to peers at this conference.
