

MICONE Consulting Inc.

Position: Environmental Trainer
Req Number: E105
Workplace: Calgary
Sector of Activity: Energy and Environment
Job Type: Contract

Company Summary

MICONE Consulting Inc. (MICONE) is a multi-disciplinary firm of experienced and professional consulting engineers, scientists and technologists. We specialize in regulatory reporting, energy efficiency, regulatory permits and approvals, sustainability and environmental training. By joining MICONE, you're seizing the chance to grow with a leader in 'Energy and the Environmental Consulting' offering challenges that never cease to inspire.

Our commitment to excellence extends to our workplace where we offer a flexible work environment, competitive compensation and benefits, a strong emphasis on health and safety, support for continuing education and professional development, and the opportunity to work with and learn from senior technical experts and professionals.

We have a fast-paced and dynamic work environment, and our team is committed to providing solution driven environmental services to help our clients in planning, managing and conducting their projects. Our growing organization needs motivated people to help us continue to grow, while maintaining the quality results our clients have come to expect.

MICONE is looking for motivated professional to take up the role of Environmental Trainer

Responsibilities:

- Prepare technical training materials
- Develop and teach regulatory, energy and environmental courses and seminars.
- Prepare and present technical papers at conferences
- Identify training opportunity

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in environmental sciences or engineering
- 3 years of training experience
- Self-motivated and possess strong written and verbal communication skills