

C. J. Newman, Retiree, Dies On Saturday

Aug 21 1977

Funeral services were held Tuesday for Chester Joseph Newman, 74, of 1950 Rose Island Road, Sebewaing, who died Saturday morning in Scheurer Hospital, Pigeon, following a lingering illness. The Rev. Mr. Harold Blakely, pastor of Kilmanagh United Methodist Church, officiated, and burial was in White Chapel, Troy. Dinkel Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mr. Newman was born in Detroit on July 21, 1897, the son of Wilbert and Ann (Glaser) Newman. On June 30, 1917, he and Lilly G. Malzahn were united in marriage in Detroit, where Mr. Newman was a policeman for many years, retiring in 1950. A longtime duck hunter in the Saginaw Bay area, Mr. Newman had been coming here since the 1930's and in 1946 the couple purchased a waterfront lot. They moved here permanently in 1955. Mr. Newman was also a member of Bay City Homing Pigeon Club.

Surviving are the widow, Lilly G. Newman of 1950 Rose Island Road, and a son, Chester R. Newman, of 1972 Portlock, Union Lake, Mich., 6 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren, one sister, Dorothy McGee of Sunnyvale, Calif., and a brother, Wilbert C. Newman of Farmington. A son, Mearle H. Newman, preceded his father in death.
