David Wayne starred on Broadway as George Kimball, a Westchester commuter whose favorite hobby is hypochondria. When he mistakenly overhears his doctor discussing another patient with heart trouble, he prepares to meet the end bravely, sure it is “his time.” Putting his affairs in order, he writes a heartbreaking letter to his wife to be read as his eulogy. He even arranges a good second husband for his soon-to-be widow, with a cemetery plot for three: himself, his wife and the new future “Mister Kimball.”

Special Thanks

A special thanks to the whole cast and crew for all their tireless effort in making this production a success. It has been a long road full of many challenges, but this was such a fun experience! Thank you to all the cast members who played double duty and helped build sets as well as performing. Thanks to College Place Assisted Living in Schulenburg for loaning the wheelchair for this production. Thank you to the Gaslight Board of Directors for allowing us to put on this show that has been very dear to my heart for a long time. Thank you to Jim Winkenwerder and Hali Berger for jumping in to take the reigns of lights and sound midway through rehearsals!
