

What is the MACOI.NET Website?

www.macoi.net

It is a collection of mini-bio sketches of some of your former colleagues. My wife and I have collected nearly 600 MACOIers so far. (Military Assistance Command Office of Information or MACOI was the parent organization of AFVN, and the majority of our bios are of AFVNers.)

Although our amateurish 'site cannot match Jim White's in quality, we are proud of it, and intend that it last forever. Our elder son has promised to maintain it after we are gone, and we expect one of his offspring, our Grands, will take over eventually.

I was never assigned to AFVN or MACOI, but my wife Chu is listed among our bios, which are alphabetical by last name.
