

AMERY VASSO

MILITARY CAREER

Amery has earned 23 years of honorable active duty service in the United States Army. He has served in every Non-Commissioned Officer leadership position during his service culminating with his selection to serve in Able Squadron, Asymmetric Warfare Group as a Team Sergeant Major.

Amery graduated with honors from the United States Army Sergeants Major Academy, Class 54. His service in both Operation Desert Storm and Operation Iraqi Freedom has earned him numerous awards and decorations which reflect his long and distinguished military career.

EDUCATION

Amery received his Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from Park University and a Master of Science Degree in Homeland Security from Fairleigh Dickinson University. He is currently an adjunct instructor at Centenary University teaching Groups, Organizations and Leadership courses.

EMPLOYMENT

Following his retirement from military service, Amery worked as both a government contractor and Department of Defense (DoD) civilian supporting projects at the Armaments Research Development and Engineering Center (ARDEC) and the Natick Soldier Research Development and Engineering Center (NSRDEC). The scope of services during his employment with the Army ranged from special projects for the Joint Special Operations Command to Soldier and small unit projects for the Maneuver Center of Excellence (MCOE) at Fort Benning, GA. Amery earned DoD certifications in Program Management (Level III) and as a Contracting Officer Representative.

Amery departed the defense world, to become Vice President and Carrier Relations Director with Willis Towers Watson (WTW); a multinational risk management, insurance brokerage and financial advisory company. His role cultivates strong business relationships with WTW's insurance carrier partners.

INTERESTS & HOBBIES

Amery and his wife Sara, who earned the rank of 1st Lieutenant in the U.S. Army, are very active in their church; recently traveling to Haiti and Nicaragua to provide sources of fresh water to local communities. Amery is the father of three daughters, one son and three granddaughters. He is active in several Veteran Service Organizations, a volunteer firefighter in Morris Township, and on occasion... a Private in the 2d New Jersey Brigade a Civil War reenactor.

He enjoys traveling and scuba diving whenever he gets a chance.