

BUT A VAPOR

Rachael Martin 6.4.2015

Just passing through.... Not of this world but in it... tomorrow will take care of itself....

His promise to those who believe on the name of Jesus Christ is salvation and everlasting life.

MAKE TODAY COUNT!!!

I'm reminded today as so many different things took place, that today was the day to do all that I could, make the best decisions I knew, love the deepest I could, speak as best what the Lord would have me speak and take care of everything I could as best I could as the Lord directed. It's now or never – it's time to seize the moment that God has us in. It's time, It's time, It's time.

James 4:13–15 – Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to such and such a city, spend a year there, buy and sell, and make a profit”;¹⁴ whereas you do not know what will happen tomorrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away.¹⁵ Instead you ought to say, “If the Lord wills, we shall live and do this or that.”

In the bigness of the Lords plans, I find myself a little overwhelmed because I'm realizing this walk of faith that is required of me will always be tested in me and my family in order for me to stay in tune with the Lord and allow Him to lead us in ALL THINGS – in order for me to seek Him FIRST in all that I do, I have to have the faith that He will answer and direct me and oh boy – does He answer!

Loved ones – we are NOTHING without God – You and I – we cannot do this without God in the lead – we cannot keep our family together, we cannot make someone else do anything, we cannot create one thing or add or take away from what God has already established in our lives. What can we do?

Believe! That He is going to take care of us.

Believe! That when we wake up tomorrow – God will lead us again into GREAT things if we allow Him, and if we don't have our heads in the sand.

Believe! That Holy Spirit will comfort us and give us hope.

Believe! That God will do what He promised He will do in our lives.

Believe! That God loves us and HE will bring the changes in our lives as we focus on Him.

Believe! That He has a plan for our life and wants to complete it.

Believe! In what we don't see!

Believe! That our lives are just a vapor and God's plans will come to pass with or without us.

Believe! That God wants to use you and me.

Believe! That we can come before God Almighty because of what Jesus did on the cross and we can hear His heart and His thoughts for what's next in our lives.

What's next for you? Do you believe that God has it already established for you? Are you walking in fear because you are uncertain? God's timing is perfect – if I can believe it, I know you can too. Are you looking back at your past too much thinking about how you have failed in the past or thinking about the hurts that you have experienced? The supernatural is released when we praise Him, when we focus on Him and we don't get caught up in the how or when – when we humbly walk and put forward movement to our faith and love our way through – there's no stopping the hand of God.

I saw this on the internet today – I thought I would share it with you – so that we are reminded today to not get weighed down by the things of this world –but to keep our eyes on God – continually asking Him for what's next and seeking His kingdom first in all we do.

“Soon this life as we know it shall pass ... only what's done for Jesus will last.”
