

Scott D Clark

(April 29, 1983 - August 29, 2014)

Scott D. Clark age 31 of Pigeon died Thursday afternoon, August 28, at his home from health problems.

He was born April 29, 1983 to Tina M. Clark and the late Tony Brazeel in Royal Oak. At age eleven, Scott moved to Huron County with his family, settling in Bad Axe. On November 17, 2007, he was united in marriage to Jenna M. Logsdon in Bad Axe and made their home in Pigeon.

He was a chef by trade and had worked at the Garfield Inn, Port Austin for several years. Scott loved cooking, making people laugh and more especially, spending time with his boys. Surviving are his wife, Jenna; two sons, Dilon and Dominic at home; his mother, Tina Clark of Royal Oak; brother, Nicholas Saner of Clinton Twp.; two sisters, Sarah Clark of Port Austin and Abigail Sabin of Flint and maternal grandparents, David and Lois Clark of Shelby Twp. Preceding him in death was a brother, Zack Clark in 2010.

The family will receive friends at the Champagne Funeral Chapel, Elkton from 2 to 6 PM Sunday, August 31, with cremation to follow. Memorials may be directed to the family.
