Sponsored by Native Veterans Remembered

Saturday October 12, 2024 10:00 a.m.

open to the public

St. Vincent Cemetery, 8601 93rd Ave N, Osseo, MN.

A Civil War style commemoration for Peter Bottineau, son of Pierre Bottineau a well-known early pioneer and Minnesota legend. Peter served three plus years in the 5th Minnesota Infantry and signed up as a veteran to serve an additional three years. The 5th fought in numerous battles and marched thousands of miles in the heat and humidity of the deep South. Corporal Bottineau became ill in early 1865 and was sent home to recuperate and ultimately succumbed to scarlet fever.

The Ceremony includes:

- a the history of the 5th Minnesota by Author Ken Flies,
- a background of the Bottineau clan by local French Voyageur historian Greg Cash
- and a eulogy by author and historian Fritz Anderson.

A dedication ceremony of Corporal Bottineau's new marker will be performed by Civil War re-enactors.
