Prelude

Congregational Reading - "Canticle of Covenant Faithfulness" UMH 125

Leader: Seek the Lord who now is present, call upon the Lord, who is near,

People: Let the wicked forsake their way, and the unrighteous their thoughts;

L: let them return, that the Lord may have mercy on them; that our God may abundantly pardon.

P: For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.

L: For as the rain and snow come down from heaven, and return not but water the earth, making it bring forth and sprout, giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater.

P: so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth; it shall not return to me empty, but it shall accomplish that which I intend, and prosper in the thing for which I sent it.

Questions:

- 1) What is the purpose of the false parable Ezekiel mentions that "The fathers eat the sour grapes, but the children's teeth are set on edge?" Why is this saying false?
- 2) What is the purpose of Ezekiel 18? What is the big picture that the Lord wants us to understand here?
- 3) Taking the lesson of Ezekiel 18 into our world, why can we have hope even if our parents, our children, or even ourselves have acted evilly in the past? Who do we place our hope in?

Memory Verse: Ezekiel 18:32 "'For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies,' declares the Lord God. 'Therefore repent and live.'"

Weekly Challenge: With Vacation Bible School happening this week, please take some time to pray for our wonderful Sunday School students and teachers.
