October 2014 News

The October rains made the mountains so beautiful...it is a joy being missionaries in Kentucky. We are so grateful for your continued prayers and support, we need you! God has been so good to us and He is faithful to bring new life through the gospel of Jesus His Son. We had the privilege to serve 540 folks in October.

Please pray with Robin and me...we began to minister at the Freedom Center shop Tuesday thru Saturday 10:00 - 2:00, we will do this for a few weeks for God's glory...our barn is over flowing.

Well the 1st week in the FCM new home was very full of excitement...Bible fellowship, songs, new faces...folks were glad to get shoes and boots, blankets, bed sheets, and clothes for the family. The racks are low and accessible to everyone...thanks to Buck Creek Baptist SC men. The women folk appreciate the new layout!

Please pray for Bible fellowship as we gather around the table...we are in the Gospel of John. Praise our Lord...some have asked interesting questions. Such as, who baptized John the Baptist? Some discussion about, was the Samaritan woman at the well the first missionary?

Another fantastic week in ministry...FC Bible fellowship had a study in John and sweet testimonies about Jesus in the lives of Acteens from Cedar Creek, TN. We had about 100 folks this week and the Acteen girls and leaders organized the warehouse and stock the shop. Missionaries from Temple BC Whitehouse, TN served Thursday and Friday. The FCM co-directors are so excited for the warehouse to be organized.

God's faithfulness overflowed! Our missionary brothers and sisters from FBC Spartanburg, SC installed a HVAC system in Agape house over a weekend. It was a great week of fellowship and work. More SC missionaries arrived the next week to drywall in Agape house and have an ATV mountain ride in God's awesome creation. We experience a miracle...I'll tell you sometime! Ask about electric tape. Makes me smile just now!

We have had about 40 folks each day in FC. Many for the first time...Praise our Lord for all the new folks that came in. We had a good time in ministry as God's word was shared.

Freedom Center street address is: 810 Kingdom Come Drive, Cumberland. The new FC is 1/2 mile from the flashing 3 way stop intersection toward Kingdom Come State Park...FC is on the right just pass Access Cable building.

Love and prayers!
