

TAKE HEART!

"And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart"
Galatians 6:9(NKJV).

"My precious child, I am calling you higher today. I want to breathe My sparks of life into you and release you to fly. I know that you are tired of things in your life and the way you have seen some situations unfold. I have seen the many disappointments you have recently had to face. You have been telling yourself that life has to have more, and you are right. You have been faithful, and have done what you felt would please My heart. I am pleased with you, precious child, and I have good news for you! There is so much more I have in store for you! Be renewed, be encouraged, be strengthened. I am calling forth a harvest in your life, unlike any you have ever seen. I am releasing a spirit of breakthrough into your home, so rejoice! Shake off the weariness, and get your eyes back on Me. You have focused on the world around you, and on recent events, and you have been losing heart, but believe Me, and you will see. There are promises being fulfilled, a world of "Yes and Amen" is unfolding. I am depositing new heavenly life into you from Me."

Dear friend, let your heart be restored today. Let your hope and faith be renewed. You may have been feeling that all your hard work and faithful service have been futile, but not one act of love and kindness has been wasted. Every step of obedience has been seen and recorded. Every seed you sowed will bring forth a full harvest because Heaven has been watching over them and protecting them, so that no harvest shall be lost. But heed the call of a loving Father who is calling you into deeper fellowship with Him.

Everything comes out of the abundance of God's presence, and even your breakthrough is coming out of your intimacy with Him. Your heart may have been weary with disappointment and an absence of answers to some of your prayers, but you are stepping into a season where many longings are to be fulfilled. There is a tree of life taking root in your garden and there will be no more deferring of your hopes and dreams if you agree with the Holy Spirit and expect Him to bring these to pass. (Proverbs 13:12).

The Lord has decreed acceleration into this season, and He is calling sons and daughters to rise up and receive completion, graduation, the fruit of the tree. It is your season! You are stepping into everything that Abba has set apart for you but He urges you at this eleventh hour "My child, do not lose heart".

If you allow discouragement to carry you away, you will lose sight of the wonderful thing that Jesus is creating in your life. Discouragement is brought by the spirit of the world. You have to agree with your Father's voice, even when your circumstances may tell you a different story. The Father's voice brings life, wholeness and restoration, while the voice of the world carries a different message entirely. Everything that God has declared in His Word is "yes" and "amen" for you when you receive it and decide to stand and believe. God has amazing plans for you which you will begin to see coming to fruition when you believe and agree.

It is possible that some of us are weary because we have lost sight of the vision God gave us (Proverbs 29:18). I am declaring a fresh revelation, and a restoration of vision this day. I pray that you will have dreams and visions, divine downloads from Abba and prophetic confirmations of what you are meant to be doing. There is a real calling on your life and a place that Papa has prepared for you. Rejoice and be glad because the Holy Spirit is with you. God loves you! Be encouraged and keep climbing dear friend, right into the abundance of your heavenly harvest, in the mighty name of Jesus, Amen!
